Our mother was preceeded in death by her husband, Kenneth C. Wilkes, of Vidalia, GA, and two daughters, Loretta H. Jones of Portal, GA, and Nancy LaGrone Collins of Vidalia, GA.

Survivors include; two daughters, June C. Jones (Troy) of Portal, GA; Gilley LaGrone of Vidalia, GA; three sons Marvin Farris Hutcheson (Kathy) of Grandview, TX, Johnny E. Hutcheson (Debra) of Dearing, GA, and William Pete LaGrone of Dearing, GA.

We can't forget her best friend- she was by my Mothers side always, even to the very end "Patches" her beloved dog. Patches laid with Mother as she moved into peace and tranquility that God had prepared for her.

Magdelene Whitaker Wilkes was born to Lem and Hattie Whitaker of Kibbee, GA. Magdelene was a country girl and a hard worker, who has been known in her younger years, to pick over 400 pounds of cotton in a day. She was a Mother who carried a wicked left hook when need be, but with a loving soul of kindness and humility. We always knew we were in for it when she started the conversation with "I don't mean no harm, but".

She was a Mother with great compassion and forgiveness for all. There are many, great adjectives than can describe Magdelene Whitaker Wilkes but the word that comes most to mind is what she was best at "LOVE".

Pallbearers: Thomas Avery, Marvin Farris Hutcheson, William Pete LaGrone, Howard Williamson, Bobby Wolaver, and Joey Woods.
