

Obituary

Born: Friday, August 25, 1922

Died: Tuesday, January 26, 2016

Mrs. Kitty Peterson, age 93, of Vidalia peacefully went home Tuesday, January 26, 2016 at Glenwood Healthcare after an extended illness. She was a native of Thomasville, grew up in Waycross, and lived most of her life in Vidalia.

Mrs. Kitty Peterson was a retired school teacher and was a member of First United Methodist Church of Vidalia. She was a prolific writer for the Vidalia Advance, the Georgia Postal Magazine "Around the Cracker Barrel," and the National Magazine Postal Gazette. She published a book named "Around the Cracker Barrel" which was a compilation of odd stories from happenings at the post offices across the United States. Mrs. Peterson hosted a radio show called "Invitation for Ladies" on WVOP and other radio stations. She is the co-author with her daughter Cathy of an unpublished novel called "Candlelight and Chrystal." The United Daughters of the Confederacy recognized her as the National Teacher of the Year in Patriotism. She worked with the Vidalia Historical Society and was on the board of directors for Cooper Conner Historical Site at Brewton-Parker College. She previously served as a board member for Paul Anderson Youth Home.

Mrs. Peterson is preceded in death by her husband, Fred Peterson; son, Martin Peterson; and parents, Alva and Beulah Martin.

Mrs. Peterson is survived by Cathy Harrison and husband Carl of Vidalia, and grandson, Nicholas Peterson and wife Heidi of Mt. Vernon.
